

And wouldn't you know, decorating the church for Christmas put everyone in a festive mood. The chili feed kept tummies full and spirits high. We thank those who found the time to make Sunrise feel like home for the holidays!